

Security6.net partners

Security6.net works with a few selected companies to provide the best service available. The following partners are experts in their respective areas of competence and always deliver quality services.

Silverbullet Aps

Silverbullet is a consulting business with professional consultants which offer guidance and assistance in specifying and projecting service oriented architectures, and the operationalization of these.

FortConsult

FortConsult is a consulting firm which perform security testing and security consulting, along with other related security services.

catpipe Systems Aps - Internet, infrastructure and security

catpipe Systems is a network infrastructure and security solutions provider. They offer security services (VPN, firewalls, mail scanning), network services (DNS, SMTP), network monitoring, custom development, and UNIX consultancy. catpipe are especially proficient experts in the areas of DNS and SMTP.

IT-WIT - IBM Unix Servers, storage and infrastructure

IT-WIT is based on high-competence consultants, primarily working with IBM UNIX products such as AIX, HACMP, TSM, PSSP and SAN solutions. The focus is on complex and critical business environments, where the customer requires high availability, clustered systems, SAN, storage solutions and centralized backup.

Neupart A/S - Information Security Awareness

Neupart A/S markets and develops software and content for

- Security policy management: Building, maintaining and communicating policies and rules.
- Awareness programs: Management tools to effective communication of knowledge, policies and rules.
- Education: Targeted security learning to all employees.
- Survey: Measuring to employees security knowledge and specific knowledge to polices.